But I don t know him myself, said Edgar; he told a fellow about his flies, who told Tim: that s the way I heard of them. Will you introduce us, Forde? asked Captain Bohun. I am sorry I am not acquainted with the individual, said Mr. Forde, throwing him VOL. I. H self on the grass just at the feet of Constance. I am the only person competent to introduce you, said Constance. I am on bowing, almost on speaking terms with Master Barlow, who, by the bye, is not much older than Edgar;, his mother is a very old gossip of mine. I shall be so much obliged to you, said Captain Bohun. Constance tried to find out whether he was looking at Isabel; but he was leaning against a...
