THE VOICE Of the Fairly Righteous Man ALL-WISE and mighty Spirit of the universe, I am in great distress. I am puzzled and perplexed at the conditions upon this earth, and I fail to understand Thee and comprehend Thy system. It causes me at times to doubt in the existence of an all-wise, intelligent, just and merciful Father in this great universe. And I am tempted to listen to the unholy doctrine of some of my people, that this is a world of chance and the survival of the fittest, and finally the perishing also of the once fittest. And then again, when I observe before me has been placed the most wonderful creations, they impress me and my senses rise up in remembrance of an almighty wise Creator. For how can I otherwise, O heavenly Father, when I think that out of these creations, I find rich food for meditation all the days of my life? And yet, though I have appropriated the earth to myself, I am unhappy and imperfect. Misery, crime and selfishness are upon my people. What is my weakness that I cannot overcome it? Or what is my strength that I succumb to the desires of the earth? I build up my faith and courage in Thee, but before I know it I stumble and fall. Am I made that I shall be forever a reproof to myself and a censure to my own behavior? O this corruptible...
