The moon now kindles her lamp of light, To illumine the dreary vault of night, While a thousand orbs around her blaze, And silently mingle their watchful rays; The earth is asleep in its gloomy shrine, And all is still save the power divine, That guides them unerring through boundless space, Where no thought can fathom, no eye can trace. And here, an atom of dust, I stand, Fashion'd to life by His plastic hand; A touch of Omnipotent power inspires My bounding heart with immortal fires. My spirit wakes from her earthly dream, Visions of rapture to me are given, --Hark!...
