By Robinson Jeffers, Tim Hunt

Stanford University Press. Hardback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, The Collected Poetry of Robinson Jeffers: Volume 4: Poetry 1903-1920, Prose, and Unpublished Writings, Robinson Jeffers, Tim Hunt, Robinson Jeffers (1887-1962) is not only the greatest poet that California (and indeed the American West) has produced but a major poet of the twentieth century who occupies a prominent place in the tradition of American prophetic poetry. Jeffers consciously set himself apart from the poetry of his generation - by physical isolation at his home in Carmel, by his unusual poetic form, and by his stance as an "anti-modernist." Yet his work represents a profound, and profoundly original, artistic response to problems that shaped modernist poetry and that still perplex poets today. For Jeffers, as for no other important modern American poet, there has never been a collected poems, not even a truly representative selected poems - the current Selected Poetry, first published in 1938, contains no poems from the last three volumes published during Jeffers's lifetime or from his posthumous volume. Now, for the first time, all of Jeffers's completed poems, both published and unpublished, are presented in a single, comprehensive, and textually authoritative edition of five volumes. The present volume...
